From the Ruſſian Camp at Petis Church, 20 Werſts beyond the Kymen, July 13, O. S.

THE Enemy continues retreating before us, and are got as far as Helſingfors. We are already almoſt thirty Miles from our own Frontiers, and in every Mile we meet with Defilés and Rivers, which are of ſuch a Breadth and Rapidity, that we cannot finiſh our Bridges, (the Enemy burning all behind them) in leſs than three or four Days. It is impoſſible to draw our Proviſions with us by Land, ſo we depend upon our Fleet for Bread; and as the Swedes have laid all waſte where they have paſſed, it will be hardly poſſible to winter here. The Froſt began laſt Year on the 18th of Auguſt, and after that Time there is no longer Foraging. The late Rains have already ſwelled theſe great Rivers, from whence we ſhall have new Difficulties.

Rome, Auguſt 4. This Court ſeems to be in the greateſt Uneaſineſs with Regard to the repeated Repreſentations from the Romagna, on the Impoſſibility of ſupplying both Armies in that Country, eſpecially as the Town Rimini has required of the Pope the neceſſary Inſtructions with regard to the Baggage depoſited in that City by the Spaniards, who ſeem to inſiſt upon the Security of that Town, ſhould the Huſſars attempt any Seizure. On the 1ſt Cardinal Borgheſe had a publick Audience of the Pope, at which he preſented a Diploma from the Emperor, and his Credentials as Conprotector of Germany. On the 2d died of a Pleuriſie Baron Scarlatti, the late Envoy from the Emperor at this Court.

Florence, Aug. 7, N. S. The Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops are very much fatigued by the conſtant Marches and Want of Forage, which occaſion great Deſertion amongſt them. Parties of 40 per Day arrive at Florence, beſides thoſe that take the Road of Bologna, &c. and enter into the Auſtrian Service. They are conſtantly harraſſed by the Huſſars, who often carry off part of their Baggage, &c.

Paris, Aug. 22 N. S. By Letters from the King of Sardinia's Camp at Ceſenna, dated the 14th N. S. we are informed, that upon the Approach of the Allied Armies, the Spaniards had retired with the greateſt Precipitation from Rimini to Fano; and that his Sardinian Majeſty had ſince ſent a large Detachment from his Army to reinforce the Troops which Guard the Frontier of his Country towards France.

From the Camp at Mothol before Prague, Auguſt 17, N. S.

On the 13th ſome Cannon were ſent to General Bathiani, in order to enable him to diſlodge the French from their Camp on that Side. Prince Charles went thither himſelf to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions. The 15th at Day break, we began to cannonade them in good earneſt, and they thereupon began to diſlodge from thence, and afterwards from the Iſlands near the Infirmary, where we fired with Carteridge Shot upon the French Huſſars who had their Camp there. They ſent their Baggage into the Town, and bore the Fire of our Artillery pretty well as long as it was Day, but withdrew entirely in the Night; and we found, the 16th in the Morning, that they had removed into the Town not only all that was good of their Horſe, but likewiſe all their Infantry, which encamped in a Bottom in order to ſupport their Entrenchments, all which they abandon'd to us, and are now encamp'd, the greateſt Part of them in the Foſſé, and upon the cover'd Way. The Deſerters, who came over Yeſterday and To-day aſſure us, that they ſuffer'd extremely by our Cannon.
